AEON Credit Service Supports Food Angel's “Meal Box Assembly”
20 Volunteers Prepare Over 2,600 Meal Boxes for the Community

AEON Credit Service (Asia) Company Limited (“AEON Credit Service”; HKEX: 00900) recently joined hands with Food Angel by Bo Charity Foundation (“Food Angel”) to support its “Meal Box Assembly” Programme. On the event day, 20 employee volunteers prepared more than 2,600 frozen and hot meal boxes, helping Food Angel provide nutritious meals to the community while demonstrating care and support for vulnerable groups through practical action.

On 19 August, AEON Credit Service volunteers visited the Food Angel Jockey Club Food Production Centre in Sha Tin, where they assisted in portioning freshly prepared meal boxes made from rescued surplus food for redistribution to elderly residents and low-income communities across Hong Kong. In addition to preparing meal boxes, the volunteers had the opportunity to tour the Food Production Centre and gained insights into how Food Angel transforms surplus food into nutritious meals, creating a meaningful impact in the community. On average, Food Angel rescues approximately 38 tonnes of edible surplus food from the local food industry each week. The organisation prepares and distributes more than 25,000 nutritious meals daily, while also providing an additional 4,000 meals and food packs to people in need, helping alleviate food insecurity among underprivileged communities.

AEON Credit Service is dedicated to corporate social responsibility, with a strong focus on environmental protection, financial education, youth education and community partnerships. By fostering collaboration among various stakeholders, the Company strives to create positive and lasting impact within the community. This volunteer activity not only supported food waste reduction efforts but also provided tangible assistance to those in need. We believe that every meal box delivers more than just food; it also conveys care, warmth and support to the community. The initiative reflects the Company's ongoing commitment to contributing to local communities with care and compassion.

Looking ahead, AEON Credit Service will continue to work closely with community partners to realise the AEON Group's vision of “Creating a future lifestyle that leads to a smile for each and every person.” Through meaningful community initiatives, the Company aims to help build a more caring, inclusive and sustainable society.
