AEON Credit Service Awards Scholarships to Outstanding Students from The Chinese University of Hong Kong for 2025/26

AEON Credit Service (Asia) Company Limited (“AEON Credit Service”; HKEX: 00900) has established “AEON Credit Service (Asia) Scholarship” for New Asia College, The Chinese University of Hong Kong (“CUHK”) since 2023/24 academic year. On 9 October, Mr. WEI Aiguo, Managing Director of AEON Credit Service, was invited to attend the scholarship presentation ceremony and present the awards to the 2025/26 scholarship recipients to honor their academic achievements and commitment to personal growth.

Since its establishment, “AEON Credit Service (Asia) Scholarship” has been dedicated to supporting outstanding students in pursuing both academic excellence and personal development. Currently, 20 students are awarded a scholarship of HK$10,000 each year. The scholarship not only recognises students' academic accomplishments but also encourages them to pursue holistic development and actively contribute to society.

AEON Credit Service believes that education plays a vital role in nurturing talent and driving sustainable social development. Through this scholarship programme, we hope to support the growth of young people, inspire them to strive for excellence, serve their communities, and contribute to building a brighter future for society.
