AEON Credit Service supports UNICEF Young Envoys Programme as Sole Sponsor and Selection Interview was Successfully Complete

Guided by the corporate philosophy of “Peace, People and Community”, AEON Credit Service has been solely sponsoring the UNICEF Young Envoys Programme since 2008.

AEON Credit Service representative and committee members of Hong Kong Committee for UNICEF conducted the final selection interview for the Young Envoys Programme. The performance of the students were exceptional. Students discussed on how to organize advocacy activities to raise the public’s attention in varies issues in the group discussion. They were very creative and came up with useful suggestions, such as filming short video, using social media, etc. Some of them used different perspective and consider the feasibility of carrying out physical activities under the epidemic.
