AEON Credit Service Introduces AEON Virtual Credit Card Function Go Virtual

AEON Credit Service (Asia) Co., Ltd. (“AEON Credit Service”; HKEX: 00900) is pleased to announce the introduction of brand-new AEON Virtual Credit Card (“Virtual Card”) function today, bringing credit card into digital form and providing customers with a convenient and seamless payment solution.

Credit card applicants can apply for an AEON Credit Card on “AEON HK” Mobile App anytime, anywhere without showing up. Once their application is approved, virtual card can be activated through “AEON HK” Mobile App. AEON Cardholders can view their approved virtual credit card details (Card number, Card expiry date and Security code) or add it to mobile wallet[#] to make payments for online shopping or in physical store and earn rewards easily without waiting for the physical card.

Existing AEON Cardholders can activate their virtual card in “AEON HK” Mobile App in just a few simple steps to enjoy various benefits and instant rewards straightaway. With the virtual card, Cardholders can enjoy hassle-free payment experience of not carrying around a physical wallet.

Mr. WEI Aiguo, Managing Director of AEON Credit Service, said “As the contactless payment is maturing into mass-market deployment in Hong Kong, the use and demand for more digital payment options have been accelerated. To cater to this growing demand, we launched our virtual card function with instant approval, instant shopping and instant rewards, which provides customers with simple payment solutions and added shopping convenience. Looking forward, we will continue to strengthen the application of financial technology and deliver better customer experience.”
