AEON Credit Service Receives Newcomer Award - Commendation at the Hong Kong ESG Reporting Awards 2025

AEON Credit Service (Asia) Company Limited (“AEON Credit Service”; HKEX: 00900) is proud to announce that it received the Newcomer Award - Commendation at the Hong Kong ESG Reporting Awards 2025, which honours first-time applicants that demonstrate outstanding performance across core environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) criteria. On 24 October, Ms. Alice Lui, General Manager of Human Resources and Sustainability Development attended the award ceremony and accepted the honour on behalf of AEON Credit Service.

The Hong Kong ESG Reporting Awards (“HERA”) is a not-for-profit initiative dedicated to recognising excellence in ESG disclosures and communications. The award winners are strictly selected by an independent panel of judges with distinguished backgrounds.

AEON Credit Service has been committed to integrating ESG principles into business operations and continuing to elevate its sustainability journey over the years. The recognition affirms the Company’s efforts in transparent reporting, responsible business practices, and continuous improvement in ESG performance among leading organisations that are shaping the future of corporate sustainability in Hong Kong and beyond.

Looking ahead, AEON Credit Service will continue to align with best practices in ESG reporting, actively respond to global sustainability strategies and contribute to building a more resilient and responsible future.
